Chairman Dale L. Borchert Address to the Legislature
January 3, 2017

Thank you!

Please join me in recognizing Legislator Marge Horton, our temporary Chair this evening. Marge has served the residents of East Fishkill and Dutchess County in this chamber for the past 14 years. Marge, as a distinguished member of our Legislature, we all value your advice and counsel on issues large and small. It is my distinct pleasure to serve with you, and I look forward to continuing our work together in the coming year. Thank you again for your service tonight!

I would also like to express my appreciation for the dedicated staff that we have right here at the legislature. Without Carolyn, Leigh, Sarah and Ben we would not be able to serve our constituents as well as we have grown accustomed to. Their hard work not only improves our abilities, but it also serves the communities that we represent. I consider it a privilege to work with you and I know that each and every one of us appreciates your commitment to our work and to the people we represent. Thank you for your service!

To my partners in the legislative leadership, Majority Leader Jim Miccio, Assistant Majority Leader Donna Bolner, Minority Leader Micki Strawinski and Assistant Minority Leader Francena Amparo; it is an honor to serve alongside you. I know that each of you and all the members of our two caucuses have the best interests of the people of Dutchess County in mind. And while we bring different ingredients to the table, as legislators our partnership allows us to bake a cake that is more than just a collection of ingredients, but rather a product that blends all of the flavors and textures that make Dutchess County truly unique.

I would also be remiss if I neglected to thank my wife Beth and my children, Kathy and Tom, for all of the support and encouragement they have given me in my pursuit of public service. Each of us here owes a great deal to our families and loved ones who loan us to our constituents. They are the ones who miss the intangibles that are lost when their family member is elsewhere. While we sit in meetings, talk to constituents and study resolutions, they are missing our presence, our energy and our engagement. Each of us has someone to thank for their sacrifice, and I would ask that you join me in recognizing the efforts paid by our families and friends.

To all of my colleagues in the legislature, I am humbled that you have once again entrusted me with the incredible responsibility of leading this body in 2017. Your support means a great deal to me and I thank you for this honor.

A year ago, we kicked off our term together with a uniquely diverse team, one that includes experienced legislators, as well as individuals who were new to the world of political debate and government policy making. Today, we stand together at half time of our term. Late last month, we ended our year tired from the efforts that we put forth, but also eager to head back out and take on a new set of challenges. Like any team, we need to take this time and remind ourselves of all that we have accomplished, as well as the obstacles we faced and overcame together.

We were compelled to hit the ground running immediately in 2016. As I outlined in my remarks last year, the time had long passed when we could ignore the problems presented to us by an antiquated, overcrowded and costly Dutchess County Jail facility. We needed to embrace, accept and defend the establishment of a complete system of justice right here in Dutchess County. For the nine members who began their tenure with us last January, this heavy lift was quite the introduction to county government. I was impressed with the exceedingly thorough and intensive review process we embarked upon before making a final determination of this most important issue, a process in which each of us played a role. While we did not agree on all of the specifics, I am proud that we were able to work together and ultimately find a long term solution to our former system of justice, one that followed a model that had seen better days. In so doing, we solved our housing-out crisis, saved tax payer dollars, and increased and enhanced our current alternative to incarceration program.

Under the leadership of Legislator Greg Pulver, our Justice and Transition Center Advisory Committee will ensure that we see this entire process through to completion.

In 2016 we also took steps to reorganize and rejuvenate committees that had been either inactive or in need of a new structure. Partnering with the County Executive, and thanks to the leadership of Legislators Joe Incoronato and Marc Coviello, two veterans from very different eras of our nation's history, we successfully reorganized the Veterans Affairs Committee with an eye towards continuing our County's commitment to veterans who served in generations past, while better understanding the evolving needs of a new generation of veterans who are protecting our nation today.

Likewise, our partnership with the County Executive revived the long defunct Human Rights Commission, an important body that provides a valuable resource for those who may encounter discrimination in our community. At a time when so many in our nation dwell on our differences and not on our common ground, I am thankful for the work that Marge Horton and Francena Amparo accomplished on our behalf in participating in the selection of this committee.

It has been said, and it can be repeated, that the primary function of the Legislature is the annual review and adoption of a proposed budget for the coming year. This annual exercise articulates the commitments that we make to the People of Dutchess County. Commitments to thoughtfully and carefully value the tax dollars that we all pay; commitments to maintain our infrastructure; commitments to augment our community as a destination that is prized not only by our residents, but also by our neighbors; and commitments to those among us who struggle with economic insecurity, who battle mental illness or disability, or otherwise find themselves in need of assistance. I would like to thank Legislator Angela Flesland for her outstanding work in guiding us through the budget process this past fall. Her review process focused each of us on the task at hand, and allowed us to take a great budget and make it even better through amendments to provide for a substance abuse counselor at the Crisis Stabilization Center, educational materials on pesticide use and well testing, expanded service hours at one of our local homeless shelter and the expansion of our home delivered meals program for seniors. All of this was accomplished while lowering the tax rate and the tax levy that we place upon our friends and neighbors. Please join me in thanking Legislator Flesland for her dedicated work and fair treatment of our budget process.

And to summarize our look back, last year I articulated three components of our economy that we could strengthen and affect as a county government, namely our investment in infrastructure, which is the backbone of an efficient society; our investment in key industries such as agriculture and tourism, which continue to import revenue from our neighboring counties; and our efforts to maintain low property taxes so that residents can afford to stay in their homes. We are fortunate to have a County Executive who understands the importance of these issues, as was evident in his budget proposal. The budget that he presented to us included over $15 million in infrastructure improvements for our roads and bridges; it included almost $2 million in investments in economic development, tourism, arts and agriculture; and it proposed, and we affirmed, a reduction in both the property tax rate and the property tax levy.

While our partnership with each other as legislators is important, our work would not be successful without the partnership we have forged with County Executive Molinaro and the members of his administration. Thank you, Marc, for working so well with each of us. I am greatly looking forward to continuing our partnership in the coming year.

And now we are positioned at the start of the second half of our term. And with the opening whistle that starts our actions once again, our future is bright and filled with promise. While a new administration in Washington may set the tone for our nation, it is here, at our local level of government, where we must remember that we are the role models for political representation. While most Americans do not regularly interact with their Federal or state representatives, we are still their friends and neighbors. We need to demonstrate that our partnerships with one another are louder than the rhetoric that any one of us may bring; we need to ensure that the policies we create are inclusive, honorable and just; and we need to affirm that any progress that may move us in a new direction will be tempered with the perseverance of those who have gone before us.

It is crucial that we continue to work to be strong fiscal stewards of our county tax dollars. Going forward, it is more important than ever to recommit ourselves to investing in our county's infrastructure and in our local economy as we work to keep and grow opportunity here in Dutchess County. We will continue to work with our partners in the community such as Dutchess Community College as they embark on new and exciting projects that will continue to bring high quality education job training to all corners of our County. Their presence in the City of Poughkeepsie and at the Dutchess County Airport is a testament to their commitment to these principles. We will also support the County Executive's Think Differently initiative by continuing to make it a priority to reach out to those in our community with special needs and to do whatever we can to make sure Dutchess County is a place that is welcoming to people of all abilities. I hope you are just as excited as I am that in February Dutchess County will once again play host to the New York Special Olympics Winter Games. Please join me in thanking all the members of county government and the community that made this possible.

With half time drawing to a close, we can see that we have accomplished much, and we can accomplish even more in the year ahead. But to be successful, we need to understand that we must continue to work together. There isn't anything in the coming year that any one of us can bring about on our own. But only through partnerships, agreements and understandings can we develop policy that works to the benefit of all. The legendary football coach Lou Holtz once said "if you don't make a total commitment to whatever you're doing then you start looking to bail out the first time the boat starts leaking. It's tough enough getting that boat to shore with everybody rowing, let alone when a guy stands up and starts putting his lifejacket on. Our success depends on each other. There is nothing we can do alone, but we can accomplish anything together. I thank you all for the partnerships we have shared, I thank you for the trust you have placed in me once again, and I am more excited than ever to work with each and every one of you as we strive to do what is right by the people we represent. May God Bless each of us and our great county.

Thank you.

The Chairman entertained a motion from the floor, duly seconded, to suspend the rules to allow the public to address the Legislature with respect to agenda items.

No one wishing to be heard, the Chairman entertained a motion from the floor, duly seconded, to resume the regular order of business.
